ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praises belong to Allah SWT, the Almighty and the Most Merciful for all blessings and miracles, who gives me strength, without which the writer would not have been able to complete this thesis. By wishing Alhamdulillahi rabil'alamin and by giving high appreciation, on this occasion, the writer would like to express the great gratitude to:

1. the writer’s beloved parents, brother, sister and all the members of her big family for their endless love, support, patience, advice, and prayer,

2. Prof. Dr. Joko Nurkamto, M.Pd. as the Dean of Teacher Training and Education Faculty of Sebelas Maret University,

3. Dr. Ngadiso, M.Pd. as the Head of English Education Graduate Program of Teacher Training and Education Faculty of Sebelas Maret University,

4. the first consultant, Prof. Riyadi Santosa, M. Ed., Ph.D, and the second consultant, Dr. Hersulastuti, M. Hum, for their time, patience, insightful comments and encouragement. Their guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I could not imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my M. Pd study.,

5. Dr. Abdul Asib, M.Pd. as the member of board examiners of this thesis,

6. Karman Al Sultani, Titik Rahayu, and Swamida as a partner in sharing when the writer did this thesis,
7. her beloved Kak Amy Rina, Zenit Panuntun, Riefky Fajar, Helinda, Anisa Rona, Siska Fitria Andriyani and all the member of ex-2007 L class friends for their support and pray,

8. Dita Anggi, Agung Septian Hidayat, and Dewi Mardhiyah for helping her collecting the data of the research,

9. Friends of English Education Graduate Program in academic year 2014/2015 in Sebelas Maret University for all the joy and sorrow we had together. The writer believed that those made us stronger and a better person.

10. those who cannot be mentioned one by one in favor of supporting the researcher to accomplish this thesis.

The writer realizes that this thesis is far from being perfect, so she welcomes the readers to give comments and suggestions. However, she greatly expects that this thesis will be useful and give contribution to all the readers.
