ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher would like to say “Alhamdulillahi Robbil Alamin” as her highest gratitude to Allah SWT for His blessing, love, opportunity, health, and mercy so that she can complete this thesis. This thesis might not run well without a great deal of assistance from other facets. Her most greatest thanks go to:

1. Dean of Faculty of Teacher Training and Education of Sebelas Maret University for his insights he has shared.
2. Head of English Education Department of Graduate Program for his great deal of assistance to my study.
3. Dra. Dewi Rochsantiningsih, M.Ed.,Ph.D., the first consultant for her precious time and thoughtful consideration during the process of thesis consultation and arrangement.
4. Prof. Dr. H. Joko Nurkamto, M.Pd., the second consultant, for providing his precious time, as well as constructive and best guidance during the process of thesis consultation and arrangement.
5. The Examiners for their valuable corrections and suggestions.
6. Headmaster, and English teachers of SMAN 1 Kertosono Nganjuk for challenging and supporting her.
7. The first and second grade students of SMA Negeri 1 Kertosono Nganjuk Academic Year 2014/2015 for their paricipation in the research.
8. All friends and everyone who have helped the researcher in accomplishing this thesis.

Hopefully, this thesis is able to be beneficial to fellow readers in order to provide them thorough information and knowledge they need, and other researchers who might plan to conduct a study in the same area.
