TEXT4 [for no 31 - 45]

My Holiday at Chek Jawa

Last holiday, my school had a field trip to Singapore. We rent fifteen rooms in a hotel at Pasir Ris Close. It was the nicest holiday I had ever with my friends.

On Wednesday, we went to a fascinating place called Chek Jawa after we had fun in Singapore Science Center on Tuesday. It is located on the easternmost tip of Pulau Ubin. It is a small area of about one kilometre. Its water teems with marine life and the temperature was quiet hot.

We went there at 07:30 a.m. from the hotel and spent three hours to get into the place. We did exciting things that I never imagined before. We were divided into ten small groups and each group consisted of seven students. I was in the same group with Anita, Budi, Gerald, Hasan, Hamid and Shinta. I was the leader of the group. The
